- a) to review the workshop outputs and consider the next steps in embedding risk appetite as agreed by the board in the Park Authority's strategic risk management approaches.

Executive Summary

On 26 May 2023, Azets facilitated a workshop with the Cairngorms National Park Authority Board and Senior Management with the aim of defining the Risk Appetite of the Board, with 14 attendees present. During the course of the workshop each attendee was asked to independently score the appetite for each risk category, utilising this information we were able to build a picture of the overall appetite of the Board and management.

The outcomes of the workshop are summarised in the Annex to this paper to support consideration of the next steps in embedding risk appetite within the Park Authority's approaches to strategic risk management.
