Tomintoul is one of the highest and remotest villages in Britain, and makes a great base from which to explore the many cycling and walking tracks on the Glenlivet Estate

www.glenlivetestate.co.uk

A spur of the Speyside Way connects Tomintoul to the Moray coast and Aviemore, and the Lecht ski area is only 10km away, www.lecht.co.uk

Dial M for Moray

Who Qualifies for this service?

You can use this service if you live within or are visiting the area covered, and have no alternative transport due to: no bus service available; elderly/frail; disabilities; need for assistance.

Where and When can I go?

This service operates in and around the Speyside Area, covering Tomintoul, Aberlour and Dufftown, and can provide connections to other bus services. It operates between 0900 and 1430, Monday to Friday (excluding 25th & 26th December, 1st & 2nd January, and May Day).

How do I book a seat?

All Dial M for Moray journeys must be prebooked by phoning the booking line, 01343 562533, between 0930 and 1300 Mondays to Fridays. Bookings can be taken up to one week in advance but must be made no later than the day before you intend to travel. Please be ready around 15 minutes before your pick up time. Whilst every effort is made to meet your booking request at the time required, we book on a first come first served basis and we may require to adjust your pick up time to fit in with our bus schedule.

How do I pay?

Fares are similar to regular bus fares with payment to the driver. Scotland Wide Concession Card holders travel free. The Speyside Area is split into 10 zones, and fares depend on the numbers of zones travelled.

This is a low-floor, wheelchair accessible bus.

Disclaimer - Whilst we have taken every care to make sure the timetable information in this booklet is correct, you are advised to always contact the operator before travelling, especially from October 2009 to March 2010 when some services will change to more limited winter timetables.
